

May 7, 2018
 PPG Paints Arena
GAME 6 - 7:00 PM ET

Presented by xfinity

PRE PUCK DROP

[2-3]

PIT

WSH

[3-2]

On Fire

Sidney Crosby's power-play goal on Saturday brought his total to 66 playoff goals, surpassing Jaromir Jagr for full possession of second place on the team's all-time playoff goals list. He now sits only 10 goals behind first-place Mario Lemieux.

All-Time Playoff Points Leaders

Player	GP	Points
Wayne Gretzky	208	382
Mark Messier	236	295
Jari Kurri	200	233
Glenn Anderson	225	214
Jaromir Jagr	208	201
Paul Coffey	194	196
Brett Hull	202	190
Doug Gilmour	182	188
Joe Sakic	172	188
Steve Yzerman	196	185
Sidney Crosby	159	184

2018 Playoff Points Leaders (as of 05.05.18)

Player	Team	Points
Jake Guentzel	PIT	21 (10G-11A)
Sidney Crosby	PIT	20 (9G-11A)
David Pastrnak	BOS	20 (6G-14A)

Note: According to NHL Stats, the 2018 Stanley Cup Playoffs are only the fourth postseason to include at least three players with 20-plus points by the conclusion of the second round.

What you...

Need To Know

1st

Jamie Oleksiak recorded his first career playoff point by scoring the first goal of the game on Saturday night in Washington.

2A

Justin Schultz had his first multi-point game of the playoffs on Saturday, notching two assists. He has points in seven of his 11 postseason games this year.

4th

With his goal on Saturday, Sidney Crosby reached the 20-playoff-point plateau for the fourth time in his career. According to NHL Stats, only four players have done that more times: Wayne Gretzky (9x), Mark Messier (7x), Jari Kurri (6x) and Glenn Anderson (5x).

Not Missing A Beat

Patric Hornqvist has points (5G-6A) in eight of his nine postseason contests this year. His two PPGs are tied for second on the team, both of which have been scored this round.

Pens' Playoff PPG Leaders

Evgeni Malkin	3
Patric Hornqvist	2
Jake Guentzel	2

*Multiple tied with 1.